Location

Empire Tower boasts an enviable address in the heart of Bangkok's dynamic financial district and enjoys close proximity to a wealth of local amenities and transport links. This business hub can offer many eating places, the nearest of which is Muteki By Mugendai, no more than a 1 minute stroll away and highly regarded by its customers. There are also plenty of places to indulge in a spot of retail therapy of host overnight visitors, included a fantastic shopping mall which resides on the ground floor of the building. For companies and employees for who frequently travel, Sathorn Bus rapid transit station and the Chong Nonsi BTS sky train station are located nearby and the International Airport is no more than 36 kilometres by road, a travel time of approximately 1 hour depending on driving conditions. Uniting low overheads, transport convenience and prestige in a single package, it would be difficult to come up with a more befitting prospective home for a venture in Bangkok.
