Location

1044A Dandenong Road is a well connected part of Melbourne for all corporate sectors. With its plentiful provision of business-friendly facilities and transport hubs, access to the rest of the region and beyond is quick and easy. Members of your team that appreciate a little retail therapy during their down-time can take advantage of the fact that the Carnegie Central shopping mall is no more than 290m from their door, as are a good selection of other leisure and relaxation venues. These premises are walking distance from an assortment of dining options, the nearest of which is Subway, merely a 6 minute hop and very popular with those in the know. For companies and staff that do business overseas, the airport is but 37 kilometres by road, a drive of about 33 minutes depending on traffic conditions. Thanks in so small part to its enviable position, this office centre can be classed as an attractive office option for companies based in Melbourne, and is worth a closer look if you are hunting for a new office provider.
