Location

Pinpointed on Collins Street, this hub is situated in the vibrant retail and entertainment precinct, in close proximity to all the shops, coffee shops and transport routes that are to be expected in such a desirable location. It is also close to a selection of great eating options - about 40 metres from here can be found Rositas Foods, a popular location for winding down with some food when the work day is done. For those who intend to fully disengage from work whilst on their break times, Lord Ivy Studio gallery is no more than a 2 minute stroll from this location and grants an enjoyable and very interesting thing to do. The building is easily accessed from Melbourne Airport, which is about 21km away and is reachable by car in 27 minutes while Flinders Street railway station is just a few steps from the door. Bringing together great value, nearby shopping outlets and a prestigious address in a single package, you'd struggle to uncover a more suitable proposition for business in or around Melbourne.
