The fully serviced offices at 233 Taicang Road feature a decor heavily influenced by contemporary art, which culminates in a sleek and stylish, but always wholly professional, environment to work in. Being on the 12th floor, you will be treated to some beautiful views of Shanghai's Luwan District, an area that is seen by many successful inhabitants as a powerhouse in Chinese commerce and trade. Your company will be neighboring the likes of Coca Cola, Seagate and Standard Chartered. These companies were tempted to set up shop here due to a wide range of professional services included in the price, such as a full manned reception and extra convenient access to the building at all hours.
