Location

These executive suites are to be found in a business friendly location in Sydney, that's within a quick stroll of lots of coffee shops and bars as well as enjoying convenient access for various transit routes. Newport Beach is just a stone's throw from the door and promises the perfect setting for a tranquil lunchtime stroll. It is also close to some great eating options - approximately 100m away you will find Pizzeria E Cucina, a popular location for winding down with some food after work. For those who often travel overseas, Sydney airport is just 45 km door to door using the M1 which translates to about over an hour in the car, depending on the time of day and road conditions. Due to its highly sought after position, this serviced office hub is a fantastic opportunity for companies based in Sydney, and would be well worth a visit when seeking new office possibilities.
