Location

Mount Street is an exceptional area of Melbourne to do business. With its plentiful provision of public facilities and public transport routes, travelling to other parts of town and even the country is as straight forward as possible. Nearby eateries include Hanoi Hannah, The Flying Duck and Shanghai Street Dumplings, all of which reside within walking distance and offer delicious lunchtime options. This area is rich with tram stops while Prahan railway station is to be found just a short hop from the door. Melbourne is an attractive proposition for multinational organisations because it is only 28 minutes drive to Melbourne Airport. With such great access to both public amenities and transit options, this office space provider is certainly a desirable office solution for those in search of world-class work space in Melbourne, and would be well worth a visit whilst on your journey towards a new office.
