Location

Situated at Steward Street, this business centre is perfectly located in the heart of East Melbourne, just a stone's throw from the beautiful Yarra River and Melbourne Cricket Ground. This business hub offers an array of eating options, a good example of which would be Makdisi Nominees, little more than a 2 minute stroll away and a real hit with the locals. Richmond railway station, which is just 110 metres from the premises, provides efficient and affordable links to the rest of the region and beyond. Melbourne Airport is roughly 29 kilometres away and is reached via the M2 in 29 minutes. This combination of world-class services and convenient location means that this business centre is a highly desirable prospect for businesses large and small.
