Location

555 Bourke Street provides your firm with a highly sought after address in Melbourne which is just a short hop from the Docklands precinct and the Yarra River. Another benefit is the selection of bistros nearby - just 40m away you will find 255 George Street Investment A, a popular location for winding down with some food when the work day is done. Melbourne Airport is no more than 22 km from the door via the M2 which equates to 20 minutes on the road at off-peak times. For more local commuters, the nearest light rail station is just one minute away and Southern Cross mainline station is an 8 minute stroll. Being in such a sought after Melbourne position ensures that 555 Bourke Street can claim to be one of the most highly acclaimed locations for modern, productive businesses, regardless of sector.
