If your organisation is looking for a fully equipped and ready to go office package in or around Sydney, then this executive office provider at 9 Harris Street is a true contender. The facility boasts a unique viewing deck for between 30 and 70 people which allows you to drink in the magnificent views across the waterfront. Visitors to the centre are welcomed in by the highly professional lobby staff, who make sure they are given guidance towards your office or given any other help they need. Residents at this serviced office centre benefit from video conference equipment, supplying a means of communications that could be very useful for times when a physical meeting is not warranted. Tenants also benefit from several lounge areas, an innovative thought bubble, the option to brand their offices and BREEAM and LEED certification, making this a centre suitable for every type of business.
