Location

Cheung Hing Industrial building can be found in a business friendly precinct in Hong Kong, that is within a short walk of retailers and fast-food outlets as well as having easy access for several transit hubs. This location is also well-placed for some excellent dining venues - roughly 110m from this centre can be found Coi Gei Kaa Fei, a lovely place for snacks and meals after a hard day's work. This area is rich in public transport options including Gong Tit Gin Nei Dei Seng Zaam railway station, which is 50 metres from the door. Hong Kong International Airport is just 38 km drive door to door and is approached using Route 8 in 28 minutes. Demonstrating great value, nearby dining options and prestige in a single package, it would be a struggle to come up with a more desirable home for a venture in the Hong Kong area.
