Recently opened in June 2018, this office hub supplies beautifully furnished executive suites which are spread across the 9th, 10th and 11th floors and benefit from a whole range of innovative features. Work alongside others in the collaborative open-plan areas while also taking advantage of the superb quiet pods which are ideal for more private phone calls and tasks. Boasting playful equipment including a hanging swing, table football and golf corner, not to mention an in-house barista café, this unique facility is designed to encourage social interaction with other professionals. This serviced office centre also offers its tenants computer assistance in the form of an experienced team of technical experts who can be called upon in times of trouble. So don't delay - book an introductory tour of this centre in the course of your office quest and get a true feel for the level of equipment and furnishings that are provided to tenants.

Location

These suites can be found in a business friendly locality of Bangkok, that is within a short walk of lots of cafes and places to eat and has convenient access to a variety of travel routes. With plenty of green spaces nearby, there is ample opportunity to escape the hustle and bustle of the desk and enjoy a tranquil stroll through the park. Commuters will benefit from close proximity to Pholen Chit BTS station while Suvarnabhumi Airport is roughly 39 km away and can be approached in about 51 minutes. Combining great value, nearby leisure options and a top business address, it would be hard to find a better place to settle your business in or around Bangkok.
