Recently opened in October 2018, this brand new office facility resides on the 23rd floor of the prestigious Collins Square Tower and is one of Australia's largest commercial mixed-use developments. Designed by highly celebrated architect Woods Bagot, this light filled business centre boasts a stylish and spacious design which has earned a 5 green Star rating - perfect for projecting a good corporate image for your firm. New arrivals at the centre are greeted by the highly professional reception team, who are ready and waiting to make sure they are pointed towards their destination without delay or given any other help they need. This executive centre is also set up to offer remote conferencing suites, providing a means of communications that could be very useful for when an on-site conference can't take place. Other features and amenities rendered at this office hub include dedicated training rooms, catering services, a regular housekeeping service, an on-site cyber-cafe and full administrative support.

Location

Collins Street is one of, if not the most, highly prized business addresses in Melbourne thanks to its abundance of nearby amenities, transportation hubs and the beautiful Yarra River. Another benefit is the selection of dining options nearby - approximately 110 metres from here can be found Jill Australia, which is a great place for winding down with some food after a hard day's work. For commuters, the immediate vicinity is brimming with bus stops, tram stops, road links and mainline stations with Southern Cross railway station positioned just a short stroll from the door. The blend of these factors means that this business hub can claim to be one of the most highly sought after locations for modern, productive businesses, regardless of sector.
