Location

Stationed in downtown Kuningan, the executive suites at this centre are sited in a business-centric district of Jakarta, that's an easy walk from some fantastic shops and food outlets and offers direct access to several transit routes. This district of Jakarta enjoys a fantastic array of restaurants and places to put up guests, including the JS Luwansa Hotel and Convention Centre Hotel, positioned just 160m from the centre and easily reached on foot. This centre is close to assorted eating places, a good example of which would be JS Luwansa, merely a 3 minute hop and very popular with those that work in this area. There are also several government office buildings nearby plus the local library, making this a highly convenient area for organisations from various sectors. For companies and staff that need to make frequent trips abroad, the airport is but 32 kilometres away, a travel time of approximately 32 minutes depending on traffic conditions. Due to its highly sought after position, this office space provider is an obvious contender when it comes to searching for workspace in Jakarta, and should definitely be included if you are hunting for a new office provider.
