Location

The offices at this centre inhabit a convenient locality of Jakarta, that's an easy walk from a fantastic range of shops and food outlets as well as benefiting from quick access to a variety of transit hubs. A prime advantage is the selection of dining options nearby - about 40m from the door is restaurant Gunung Mas, a popular location for snacks and meals after a hard day's work. Both Setiabudi One Building and Plaza Festival are also nearby, promising a whole host of vibrant eateries and cafes. Soekarno-Hatta International is the most convenient airport for this region and can be approached in under 50 minutes via the Jakarta Inner Ring Road. Thanks in so small part to its enviable position, this office centre can be classed as an obvious contender for organisations based in or looking to relocate to Jakarta, and should definitely be included whilst on your quest for a new office.
