Location

Sited at Segitiga Emas Business Park, this serviced office centre is an enticing prospect for enterprises in need of a combination of a world class place to do business, reasonable costs and efficient transport links. This district of Jakarta offers a good variety of cuisine and places to put up guests, including the Raffles Jakarta Hotel, stationed only 140 metres from the building and just a short stroll on foot. This location is perfectly positioned for an assortment of food options, one example being HK Dimsum, which is a 3 minute stroll away and something of a favourite with all that visit. For companies and employees that frequently make trips abroad, the airport is no more than 29 kilometres by road, a travel time of approximately 31 minutes on a good day. With such great access to both public amenities and transit options, this centre is certainly a desirable office solution when it comes to searching for workspace in Jakarta, and is an essential visit when seeking new office possibilities.
